Taxpayer is not required to report the value of qualifying personal property that does not exceed the amount of the current year maximum exemption. However, submitting a complete and full report of all assets is advised as it will help to ensure the correct application of the exemption and accuracy of the assessor's valuation. In addition, all personal property statements filed with the assessor may be subject to audit, may be used as evidence in any prosecution brought under A.R.S. § 42-15055, and may be subject to penalty if property is found to have been under-reported or to have escaped taxation. Accounts not subject to filing requirements may be audited. A.R.S. § 42-15052 through § 42-15055 and § 42-11002.
